INSURANCE

The organisers of the Event, The Trail Co., have public liability insurance cover. This does not include personal accident insurance for competitors. We recommend that you arrange your own personal accident insurance and ambulance cover before participating in the Event to cover any unforeseen personal costs you may incur due to ambulance trips, medical expenses or time off work due to injuries sustained whilst participating in the Event.

REFUND POLICY

Refunds will not be offered for this event.

ENTRY TRANSFER POLICY

Entry transfers may be accepted until 8pm on Wednesday September 18. Transfers will only be accepted for:

- An existing participant transferring to a different distance to which you are currently registered. To transfer your entry you need to email contact@thetrail.co outlining which event you are withdrawing from and which event you wish to transfer to. Note that if you wish to move up in distance you will be charged the additional entry fee; there is no fee refund when transferring down in distance. There is no additional charge for processing this transfer.

- A new participant replacing an existing participant in the same distance event only. To transfer your entry the NEW PARTICIPANT needs to email contact@thetrail.co ensuring you CC the EXISTING PARTICIPANT on that email. You will then be provided with an entry code allowing you to enter online as normal; the entry code will cover the cost of your entry less a $10 administration fee. The original runner will be withdrawn from the event (no refund will be made to the original participant - you will need to work this out between you).

EVENT CANCELLATION

In the event that the Event course is, in the opinion of the event organisers, unsafe (e.g heavy rain, high winds, bushfires, "acts of god" etc), or at the direction of any other relevant authority, organisers may be required to cancel the event. If the event is cancelled, no refund or transfer to another event will be made, and no responsibility is taken by the organisers for lost travel or accommodation expenses.
